HACKUPC

September 16, 2019

To whom it may concern,

This is a letter to certify that BERBACHE Messaoud Bahe Eddine with passport number 197298517, a student at Higher National School Of Computer Science (ESI ex INI) has been accepted to participate in HackUPC 2019, a programming competition that will take place at the Facultat d'Informatica de Barcelona buildings in Barcelona from October 11th to 13th 2019. HackUPC is the biggest competition of this kind in Spain, over 700 students will attend and compete. It will end with a presentation of what contestants have created during the competition, which is open to the public. We will cover all food and lodging requirements for the weekend for all participants.

HackUPC is accepting international students from all over the world to participate in the competition. We have attendees coming from schools such as Oxford University, Imperial College of London and the University of Michigan.
